service of prayer and reflection on 'The Journey Ahead' on Wednesday evenings on Facebook and YouTube (7.30pm) .

The new rules!

The Diocese advise that they are confident that we can carry on with the arrangements that we have established for worship over the last few weeks.

Social distance, hand hygiene and face coverings indoors are important. In churches, leisure venues and outdoor spaces, the local guidance is to avoid social interaction with anyone outside your household, even if you see other people you know.

We're now registered with easyfundraising, which means you can help us for FREE. Thank you to those who have already signed themselves and their relatives up! All you need to do is sign up and remember to use easyfundraising whenever you shop online. It's easy and completely FREE! you would like to attend so that we can make lists and ensure we don't have to turn anyone away! First come first served! Please let us know each week! Thanks!

Forthcoming: Book club

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Wednesday September 30th at 7pm to discuss The Bee-keeper of Aleppo
Please contact Bill Lomas by email (avrillomas@aol.com) for further information.

Harvest event

October 3rd (weather permitting) 12.30-2 we will have a service of thanksgiving for creation to which you are welcome to bring your own picnic (There will also be a quiz available £1 to support Peoples Kitchen and prizes.) You must book ahead: Maximum 16.

Harvest Festival

Sunday October 4th we will be celebrating Harvest and supporting the Peoples Kitchen to feed hungry

We Pray for

All those to be ordained deacon or priest over the coming weeks

This week we are keeping in our prayers Hylde, Mavis, Kat, Carol and Al.

Please also pray for Hilma Hall and people locally. Please bring items to be donated to church — list is on our website. They DO NOT want pasta or baked beans as they have been given large stocks of these!

AGM

As you know we plan to hold our AGM on October 4th in church at about 11am 'in person' We are assured that such 'in person' meetings should not be affected by the new rules as they are part of our work as the church, as indeed is our worship. Please let Marjorie know if you plan to stay, as our capacity will be 30, or if you would like to join us using Zoom.

At this meeting we will, as usual, elect Churchwardens, and we will be seeking to fill four vacancies in the membership of our DCC. In addition this year we will elect one Deanery Synod lay representative (each of the churches in the team will elect one, so that the parish has five overall). This is important because in 2021 there will be elections for a new Diocesan Synod as

Derek Cessford, who have recently died, and for their families

At their anniversary we also remember

Rebecca Leyden
John Thomas Ormston
Ruby Taberner
David Wilson

well as the General Synod election deferred from 2020, and the lay members of Deanery Synod are the electors for the Houses of Laity in both of these elections - so our route to influence the thinking of the Diocese and the wider Church of England.

Formal notices are on display, and those who are on the electoral roll are entitled to participate in proceedings (others are welcome to observe). Ask the wardens if you might be interested and want to know more.

A warm and inclusive welcome! We are very pleased to report that we are now recognised as part of Inclusive Church – a national network of churches, groups and individuals uniting together around a shared vision: a church which celebrates and affirms every person and does not discriminate.

Children's Society: please can you bring your collection boxes or cheques to the Children's Society with you to church over the next two weeks as Susan Brimer will be counting up our donations.

Thank you from Margaret:

Hello Pauline, thank you so very much for your prayers! It's wonderful to be feeling better each day and to be back in my own home. I can't say how good it is to be back among dear friends and neighbours. I am, however, not up to strength yet after a very serious catalogue of complications. My doctor has signed me off till the end of October and I can tell from the tiredness that it will take several weeks before I am up to speed and able to give proper focus and energy to ministry. Please pass on my sincere thanks to all who have faithfully held me in prayer. It means a lot.xx
